

TA Resources for the AIDS Drug Assistance Program Data Report (ADR)

Data Management

Data Integration, Systems & Quality TA (DISQ) Team

The DISQ Team provides TA focused on:

- Guiding new users on where to start
- Mapping source data to required reporting variables/schema
- Using the ADR TRAX application to create compliant XML files
- Integrating data from multiple sources (e.g. ADR-Ready Systems, Electronic Health Record (EHRs), State Surveillance, Labs, etc.)
- Easing communication between recipients and data systems
- Connecting recipients who use the same data systems in peer learning opportunities
- Identifying and addressing data quality issues using system-generated reports (e.g., Validation and Upload Completeness Reports)
- Developing year-long processes for data collection, management, quality checks, and utilization

Program-Related Questions

HAB Project Officers

Project Officers (POs) assist recipients with technical assistance (TA) and may submit formal TA requests on their behalf. POs can also address issues with programmatic components such as funding and exemptions, and help recipients resolve issues related to non-compliant providers, deadlines, and missing data.

Report Administration

Ryan White HIV/AIDS Program Data Support

Ryan White Data Support provides TA focused on:

- Understanding HRSA HAB reporting requirements and guidance documents (e.g., the ADR Instruction Manual)
- Allowable responses for data elements in the Recipient Report and client-level data file
- Understanding and addressing the ADR validation alerts, warnings, and errors
- ADR submission status changes, including clarifying the report's status or report status change requests
